Subject: STMD PROJECT REDESIGNED

SUPPLY TO MY DOOR project redesign from ground up, following world class SDLC (Software Development Life Cycle)

Project brief and specs

Gathered requirements

Mockup and design

Development

Testing

Deployment

For 1, Front end theme, 2, ecommerce, 3, service

Note this quote doesn't include the APP, because the specification has to be examined as it determines price by a huge margin, as it depends on so many other variables, such as google map api service level, broadband width, hosting and many more.

NOTE: Any parts of old projects that is deemed re-usable, will discount the price of that part of the design and or development. This will also reduce the time to produce the project..

I foresee that even with a complete redesign of the project, about £3000 savings can be made from reusing and repurposing code existing code as is now. if of course a decision is made to reuse and recycle code.
